

Jeffrey Villar

Brief Professional Biography

Jeffrey A. Villar, Ph.D. was appointed the Superintendent of the Rocky Hill Public Schools in March, 2007. Prior to his arrival in Rocky Hill he served as the Associate Superintendent for Instruction in the Meriden Public Schools for four years. As the Associate Superintendent, Dr. Villar was responsible for the development and implementation of the educational program as well as the supervision of all certified faculty including administrators and teachers.

Before moving to the Central Office, Dr. Villar was the principal of Washington Middle School in Meriden, an Assistant Principal at both the middle and high school levels and was a founding member of the Sports Sciences and Medical Academy Magnet School in Hartford, Connecticut. Prior to becoming a school administrator, Dr. Villar was a History and Social Studies Teacher at the middle and high school levels in Hartford, Lebanon, and Chaplin, Connecticut.

Dr. Villar is also an adjunct professor in the Education Leadership Department at Southern Connecticut State University in New Haven, Connecticut, where he instructs aspiring school administrators in curriculum development.

Dr. Villar earned a Doctorate Degree from the University of Connecticut in 1999, a Masters Degree from the University of Connecticut in 1996, and a Bachelor's Degree from Eastern Connecticut State University in 1993.